

- This weekend we celebrate Pentecost—the end of the Easter season and the “birthday of the Church” as the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles...to give them understanding of the teaching of Jesus and courage to go out to preach the Gospel of Christ to the world.
- Remember that the descent of the Holy Spirit an actual historical event, not simply some symbol.
- And how can we know this? Because of the facts of history.
- Before Pentecost the apostles were hiding for their lives—trying not to be noticed.
- Their leader had just been crucified a few weeks ago, and religious authorities were hunting down his disciples.
- But the Holy Spirit then descends upon them...and all trace of fear vanishes. Then the apostles’ only concern becomes that Jesus is preached to the world.

- St. Paul had a similar transformation—going from persecuting the Church to being its greatest defender and evangelist in virtually the space of a moment...when Jesus appeared to him on the road to Damascus.

- These are historical events. Thus, it is unreasonable to believe that they did a 180 degree turnaround in a moment without some sort of remarkable event—going from cowardly fear to going out and preaching fearlessly in a moment.
- For the apostles, on Pentecost their eyes are opened, and they realized that hardship in this world is inconsequential compared to eternal life and pleasing God...and thus they go boldly into a hostile world...hated by many, assaulted, thrown into prison, beaten, whipped, cursed...and finally martyred.

- And they do this not only for a day or a week, but some of them for decades. WHY do this unless they understood and knew the overwhelming love of God, and thus the joy of pleasing Him by doing His will. Their sights were set on greater things.
- We read of this in the Acts of the Apostles: “when [the council] had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. Then [the apostles] left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. And every day in the temple and at home they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.” (Act 5:40-42 RSV)
- As St. Paul would write: “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us.” (Romans 8:18)
- And no doubt they remembered Jesus’ words: “The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized...” (Mark 10:39) “... you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved.” (Matt 10:21-22)
- Now “Pentecost” means “the fiftieth day”, and the Jewish Pentecost is 50 days after Passover, as the Christian Pentecost is 50 days after Easter.
- The Jewish Pentecost—more properly called the Feast of Weeks, or Shavu’ot—celebrates God giving the Law—the Ten Commandments—to Moses on Mt. Sinai 50 days after the Exodus from Egypt...freeing them not only from physical slavery, but also from spiritual bondage to idolatry and immorality.
- For Christians, Pentecost celebrates of the coming of the new, eternal law—which completes the old law...and the new law is the understanding of the teaching of Christ which comes through Holy Spirit...who descended upon the Church that Pentecost day 2000 years ago.

- In the story of the Tower of Babel in Genesis, God strikes sinful mankind which thought to make its name apart from God—and they begin to speak in all different languages...signifying the confusion which comes from living apart from the ways of God.
- But at Pentecost, the various peoples in Jerusalem for the feast all hear the apostles speaking in each person's own language—to show that the “people of God” is not limited to a certain race or nationality, but rather the Church is to embrace ALL peoples and nations.
- The Church's mission becomes the reunification of mankind by the language of Christ.
- As Jesus prayed to the Father the night before He died: “...I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name, which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. (Joh 17:11 RSV)”
- We, the baptized...the confirmed...have now been sealed with that same Spirit which descended upon the apostles 2000 years ago... that very same Spirit of God who moved across the waters at Creation, who parted the Red Sea, who burned the 10 commandments upon tablets of stone...who touched our Blessed Mother's womb when she conceived Jesus.
- And with that seal of God is the assignment of a mission—to love God and neighbor above all...and so to seek the unity of humanity through charity and love.

- So knowing this is our divine mission...and that our responsibility to try to accomplish that mission is no less than it was with the apostles... take an honest look at yourself today and ask:
- Am I really an active member of the Body of Christ? Am I fulfilling the role assigned to me by God...fulfilling MY mission?
- Through the Holy Spirit, we are made active members of Christ's Church...with all the strength and power necessary to be true soldiers of Christ...to help our fellow Christians—and ALL men—in our common struggle against evil.
- As St. Paul tells us: “...walk by the Spirit, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other... Now the works of the flesh are plain: fornication, impurity, licentiousness [lacking in moral restraint], idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, dissension, party spirit [factions], envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like...those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.” (Gal 5:16-21).
- What are the signs that we are walking by the Holy Spirit?
- Paul tells us just a few verses later: “...the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such there is no law. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.” (Gal 5:22-24)
- Isn't it striking how, as it says in the book of Ecclesiastes, that “there is nothing new under the sun”...and how that observation holds just as true today as when it was written.
- For millennia the world has tried to convince itself that “sex, drugs and rock-and-roll” and the pleasures of the flesh lead to fulfillment...even though history and experience teach us that love, joy, peace and truly good things come to us only by living a life in accordance with the will of God.

- The Church's victory is inevitable...but the question each of us must answer is: Am I going to slink away from the fight and do my own thing apart from God (like those at the tower of Babel) ... or am I going to take up the cause—using the weapons of prayer, charity and faithfulness to God—and move forward to victory.
- For in this conflict, those who do not fight lose...but those who enter the battle wholeheartedly...following Christ our king and fortified by the Holy Spirit...have already won eternal life.

Reading 1

Gn 11:1-9 or Ex 19:3-8a, 16-20b or Ez 37:1-14 or Jl 3:1-5

The whole world spoke the same language, using the same words.
While the people were migrating in the east,
they came upon a valley in the land of Shinar and settled there.
They said to one another,
"Come, let us mold bricks and harden them with fire."
They used bricks for stone, and bitumen for mortar.
Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city
and a tower with its top in the sky,
and so make a name for ourselves;
otherwise we shall be scattered all over the earth."

The LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the people had built.
Then the LORD said: "If now, while they are one people,
all speaking the same language,
they have started to do this,
nothing will later stop them from doing whatever they presume to do.
Let us then go down there and confuse their language,
so that one will not understand what another says."
Thus the LORD scattered them from there all over the earth,
and they stopped building the city.
That is why it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the speech of all the world.
It was from that place that he scattered them all over the earth.

Ex 19:3-8a, 16-20b

Moses went up the mountain to God.
Then the LORD called to him and said,
"Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob;

tell the Israelites:
You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings

and brought you here to myself.
Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant,
you shall be my special possession,
dearer to me than all other people,
though all the earth is mine.
You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation.
That is what you must tell the Israelites."
So Moses went and summoned the elders of the people.
When he set before them
all that the LORD had ordered him to tell them,
the people all answered together,
"Everything the LORD has said, we will do."
On the morning of the third day
there were peals of thunder and lightning, and a heavy cloud over the mountain,
and a very loud trumpet blast,
so that all the people in the camp trembled.
But Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God,
and they stationed themselves at the foot of the mountain.
Mount Sinai was all wrapped in smoke,
for the LORD came down upon it in fire.
The smoke rose from it as though from a furnace,
and the whole mountain trembled violently.
The trumpet blast grew louder and louder, while Moses was speaking,
and God answering him with thunder.

When the LORD came down to the top of Mount Sinai,
he summoned Moses to the top of the mountain.

Ez 37:1-14

The hand of the LORD came upon me, and he led me out in the spirit of the LORD and set me in the center of the plain,
which was now filled with bones.
He made me walk among the bones in every direction
so that I saw how many they were on the surface of the plain.
How dry they were!
He asked me:

Son of man, can these bones come to life?
I answered, "Lord GOD, you alone know that."
Then he said to me:
Prophesy over these bones, and say to them:

Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!
Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones:
See! I will bring spirit into you, that you may come to life.
I will put sinews upon you, make flesh grow over you,
cover you with skin, and put spirit in you so that you may come to life and know that I am the LORD.
I, Ezekiel, prophesied as I had been told,
and even as I was prophesying I heard a noise;
it was a rattling as the bones came together, bone joining bone.
I saw the sinews and the flesh come upon them,
and the skin cover them, but there was no spirit in them.
Then the LORD said to me:
Prophecy to the spirit, prophesy, son of man,
and say to the spirit: Thus says the Lord GOD:
From the four winds come, O spirit,
and breathe into these slain that they may come to life.
I prophesied as he told me, and the spirit came into them;
they came alive and stood upright, a vast army.
Then he said to me:
Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel.
They have been saying,
"Our bones are dried up,
our hope is lost, and we are cut off."
Therefore, prophesy and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD:
O my people, I will open your graves
and have you rise from them,
and bring you back to the land of Israel.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD,
when I open your graves and have you rise from them,
O my people!
I will put my spirit in you that you may live,
and I will settle you upon your land;
thus you shall know that I am the LORD.
I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

or

Jl 3:1-5

Thus says the LORD:
I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh.
Your sons and daughters shall prophesy,

your old men shall dream dreams,
your young men shall see visions;
even upon the servants and the handmaids,

in those days, I will pour out my spirit.
And I will work wonders in the heavens and on the earth,
blood, fire, and columns of smoke;
the sun will be turned to darkness,
and the moon to blood,
at the coming of the day of the LORD,
the great and terrible day.
Then everyone shall be rescued
who calls on the name of the LORD;
for on Mount Zion there shall be a remnant,
as the LORD has said,
and in Jerusalem survivors
whom the LORD shall call.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 104:1-2, 24, 35, 27-28, 29, 30

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
You are clothed with majesty and glory,
robed in light as with a cloak.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

How manifold are your works, O LORD!
In wisdom you have wrought them all
the earth is full of your creatures;
bless the LORD, O my soul! Alleluia.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Creatures all look to you
to give them food in due time.
When you give it to them, they gather it;
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading II

Rom 8:22-27

Brothers and sisters:

We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now;
and not only that, but we ourselves,
who have the firstfruits of the Spirit,
we also groan within ourselves
as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

For in hope we were saved.

Now hope that sees is not hope.

For who hopes for what one sees?

But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait with endurance.

In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness;
for we do not know how to pray as we ought,
but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.

And the one who searches hearts
knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones
according to God's will.

Gospel

Jn 7:37-39

On the last and greatest day of the feast,
Jesus stood up and exclaimed,
"Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink.

As Scripture says:

Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me."

He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in him were to receive.

There was, of course, no Spirit yet,
because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

Acts 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled,
they were all in one place together.
And suddenly there came from the sky
a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.
Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire,
which parted and came to rest on each one of them.
And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.
At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd,
but they were confused
because each one heard them speaking in his own language.
They were astounded, and in amazement they asked,
"Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?
Then how does each of us hear them in his native language?
We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene,
as well as travelers from Rome,
both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs,
yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues
of the mighty acts of God."

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O Lord!

the earth is full of your creatures;

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Reading II

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Gal 5:16-25

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters:

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body,
so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,
whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

or

Gal 5:16-25

Brothers and sisters, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh.
For the flesh has desires against the Spirit,
and the Spirit against the flesh;
these are opposed to each other,
so that you may not do what you want.

But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.
Now the works of the flesh are obvious:
immorality, impurity, lust, idolatry,
sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy,
outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness,
dissensions, factions, occasions of envy,
drinking bouts, orgies, and the like.
I warn you, as I warned you before,
that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.
In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace,
patience, kindness, generosity,
faithfulness, gentleness, self-control.
Against such there is no law.
Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh with its passions and desires.
If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.

Gospel

Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Jn 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week,
when the doors were locked, where the disciples were,
for fear of the Jews,
Jesus came and stood in their midst
and said to them, "Peace be with you."
When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side.
The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.
Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me, so I send you."
And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit.
Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them,
and whose sins you retain are retained."

or

Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:
"When the Advocate comes whom I will send you from the Father,
the Spirit of truth that proceeds from the Father,
he will testify to me.

And you also testify,
because you have been with me from the beginning.

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.
But when he comes, the Spirit of truth,
he will guide you to all truth.
He will not speak on his own,
but he will speak what he hears,
and will declare to you the things that are coming.
He will glorify me,
because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you.
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."
