

Immaculate Conception - 2014

- The solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is always a good day to go over this often-misunderstood feast of Mary.
- The Immaculate Conception of Mary is, of course, NOT about the conception of Jesus in Mary's womb, but rather about the conception of Mary in HER mother's womb—her mother is traditionally known as St. Anne.
- Mary was conceived in the normal manner of her mother and father coming together...but what we celebrate, and what is unique about Mary's conception, is that she—by a unique and special act of God--was preserved free from any stain of Original Sin and in complete purity from the moment of her conception...preserved in anticipation of her role as the future mother of God.
- Yet she is still a human being saved by the saving grace of Christ's sacrifice, but in anticipation of that sacrifice. That's what "prevenient grace" that our offertory prayer will refer to.
- And though unique, this is not "hard" for the all-powerful God to do. Of all the vessels of God's house, so to speak, Mary is the most precious vessel of all.
- That is why Mary is called the "new Eve" or the "true" Eve—because Mary was what Eve was meant to be...and Mary is what we all should be...because of all humanity she most perfectly reflects the holiness of her son.

- Many non-Catholics, of course, deny the Immaculate Conception, and say that Mary was just a woman like any other.
- But from the beginning of the Bible we hear whispers of Mary's special place.
- The first reading from Genesis spoke of "the woman" whose child would strike at the head of the serpent.
- In the lesser sense Eve is "the woman"...but in the fullest sense, the true "woman" is Mary, and her child is, of course, Jesus.
- When the test of faithfulness comes, Eve failed...but Mary, in her readiness to do God's will, simply replies: I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.

- During the Exodus the Ark of the Covenant was constructed with purest gold, to make it most worthy to contain the tablets of the 10 commandments, some of the manna the Israelites ate in the desert, and the staff of Aaron the high priest—all symbols of Christ.
- But Mary contained Christ himself—God Himself—incarnate in her womb for 9 months...He who is the perfect and everlasting Covenant, and thus Mary is the TRUE Ark of the Covenant.
- ...reminding us of the book of Revelation where it says: “God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple; and there were flashes of lightning, voices, peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail. And a great portent appeared in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars...” (Rev 11:19-12:1 RSV)...as if that first Ark of the Covenant is simply a shadow of the second and true Ark of the Covenant. The woman, who is Mary.
- And so...after centuries of consideration and debate, the Immaculate Conception became an official tenet of our faith... declared as infallible doctrine by Pope Pius 9th in 1854...and soon verified by Mary herself in her apparitions at to St. Bernadette in 1858.
- And yet, Mary...so uniquely blessed by God... is still human only. A creature...to be venerated, but never worshiped. Worship is for God alone.
- Mary's only “power” is her prayers to God...the relationship with her Son. And yet...how powerful her prayers are!
- Jesus obeyed the Father...AND His mother. And she is still, and will be for all eternity...His beloved Mother.
- As one so loved by Jesus, doesn't it just make sense that we honor and revere her...she who is honored and revered by Jesus Himself?
- She who is not only a child of the Father as we all are, but also Mother of the Son, and spouse of the Holy Spirit. How can one be closer to God than that—with such intimate relationships with each of the persons of the Holy Trinity?

- So the wise will always stay close to her, conversing with her in prayer...asking her intercession for us with her Son.
- For she is our Mother as well...given to us by Jesus Himself at the foot of the cross...when He looks at Mary and says to his beloved disciple: “Behold, your mother.”
- At the Transfiguration, the Father gave the command to the apostles: “This is my beloved Son...listen to Him.”
- So let us obey our beloved Mother in the one and only command she gives in the scripture when she echoes the Father...her one desire as she points to her Son: “Do whatever He tells you.”

Gn 3:9-15, 20

After the man, Adam, had eaten of the tree,
the LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?"
He answered, "I heard you in the garden;
but I was afraid, because I was naked,
so I hid myself."
Then he asked, "Who told you that you were naked?
You have eaten, then,
from the tree of which I had forbidden you to eat!"
The man replied, "The woman whom you put here with me
she gave me fruit from the tree, and so I ate it."
The LORD God then asked the woman,
"Why did you do such a thing?"
The woman answered, "The serpent tricked me into it, so I ate it."

Then the LORD God said to the serpent:
"Because you have done this, you shall be banned
from all the animals
and from all the wild creatures;
on your belly shall you crawl,
and dirt shall you eat
all the days of your life.
I will put enmity between you and the woman,
and between your offspring and hers;
he will strike at your head,
while you strike at his heel."

The man called his wife Eve,
because she became the mother of all the living.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 98:1, 2-3ab, 3cd-4

R. (1) Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous deeds.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

R. Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous deeds.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

Reading II

Eph 1:3-6, 11-12

Brothers and sisters:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
who has blessed us in Christ
with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world,
to be holy and without blemish before him.

In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will,
for the praise of the glory of his grace
that he granted us in the beloved.

In him we were also chosen,
destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will,
so that we might exist for the praise of his glory,
we who first hoped in Christ.

Gospel

Lk 1:26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God
to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph,
of the house of David,
and the virgin's name was Mary.

And coming to her, he said,

"Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you."

But she was greatly troubled at what was said
and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

Then the angel said to her,

"Do not be afraid, Mary,

for you have found favor with God.

Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son,
and you shall name him Jesus.

He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High,
and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father,

and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever,
and of his Kingdom there will be no end.”
But Mary said to the angel, “How can this be,
since I have no relations with a man?”
And the angel said to her in reply,
“The Holy Spirit will come upon you,
and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.
Therefore the child to be born
will be called holy, the Son of God.
And behold, Elizabeth, your relative,
has also conceived a son in her old age,
and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren;
for nothing will be impossible for God.”
Mary said, “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
May it be done to me according to your word.”
Then the angel departed from her.
